Classes

Calligraphy - Copperplate

Copperplate calligraphy is often referred to as the 'wedding' or 'Christmas' script because of its formal and traditional spirit. It is the type of lettering seen in historical documents, such as the Constitution or the Bill of Rights. Experience with pen and ink is helpful. Students must furnish their own supplies.

Supplies will be provided for first class. A supply list for remaining class sessions will be provided at the first class meeting. Handouts are provided.
